

SELF-DECLARATION FORM FOR APPLICANTS, EMPLOYEES AND VOLUNTEERS IN NON- REGULATED ACTIVITY

INFORMATION:

Newcastle United Foundation (the Foundation) has identified that the post you are applying for involves or may involve duties with children and/or vulnerable adults and the Foundation takes their welfare very seriously. The Foundation views that this post is a position of trust and that it may be seen by the children or vulnerable adults as having power and/or influence. The Foundation needs to ensure employees and volunteers take their role and duties seriously and have the welfare of the child or vulnerable adult central to practice.

The Foundation actively promotes safe working practices and professional boundaries including Codes of Conduct to support employees and volunteers to safeguard children and vulnerable adults. Relationships with children and vulnerable adults must be appropriate and language, behaviour and demeanour must not give rise to speculation or comment. The Foundation will expect employees and volunteers to undertake Safeguarding training to ensure an understanding of best practice in relation to children and/or vulnerable adults. This reflects the Foundation's/Charity's attitude to safeguarding and the Foundation expects all employees and volunteers to share this commitment.

In many cases we will disregard certain information. The Foundation has an Equal Opportunities Policy and a Recruitment of Ex-Offenders Policy which are available to you on the share drive or on request.

The possession of a criminal record or together information disclosed to the Foundation will not necessarily prevent you from working with us. All information is considered on its merits and you can be assured will be dealt with sensitively and that your information will be handled confidentially and shared only on a need to know basis. The Foundation has a Secure Record Keeping and Data Storage Policy which is available to you on the central communications platform or on request.

This post will also require written references and will include a six month probationary period which allows for monitoring and assessment purposes including ensuring your suitability to work with children and/or vulnerable adults.

Please note in accordance with the requirements of the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act (2006) a barred person may not be employed in certain posts. These are posts described by the Act as 'Regulated Activities'. The Foundation does consider this to be a Regulated Activity position. The Foundation would be committing an offence if we knowingly employ a barred person in Regulated Activity.

“Data Protection Legislation” means all applicable laws and regulations relating to the processing of personal data and privacy in any relevant jurisdiction including without limitation the GDPR, the Data Protection Act 2018, the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations, the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000, the Telecommunications (Lawful Business Practice)(Interception of Communications) Regulations 2000 (SI 2000/2699) and any order, guidelines and instructions issued by a relevant national regulator or judicial authority in England or the European Union;

“GDPR” means the General Data Protection Regulation (CEU 2016/679) and any national implementing laws, regulations and secondary or related legislation (including as transposed into domestic legislation);
